

Julie Millar – Senior Law Clerk

Julie commenced working in the legal field in 1973 with a Melbourne firm that specialized in Family Law. She was the Personal Assistant to one of the Partners and the work involved Court attendances, Conferences with Barristers and instructing Counsel at hearings.

When she joined Lyttletons she was able to bring extensive experience to the firm in the Family Law area and always enjoyed building client trust in her capabilities and high level of work.

She commenced working for Lyttletons in 1980 where she has remained in full time employment since that time. Over a period of 40 years working in the legal sector she has gained considerable and invaluable experience in the following areas –

- Family Law
- Conveyancing
- Commercial – sale and purchase businesses
- Leases
- Litigation
- Debt recovery
- County Court/Supreme Court

Julie prides herself on the fact that many of the long standing clients of the practice still request her to attend to their needs and she always has and will put the client first and utmost, and ensure that whatever their needs they will be attended to in a highly efficient manner. Providing a high level of service to the client/s is of great importance and Julie welcomes client contact, availability to client/s and ensuring the process of their matter is stress free at all times. She is able to meet each and every challenge that can occur.

Julie currently works in the Conveyancing/Commercial area in which she finds considerable enjoyment with the personal client contact.
